

Ken Matsumoto

Basalt Rock
9" x 12" x 6"

Ken is a well-established and respected sculptor who holds a Masters of Fine Arts degree in sculpture from San Jose State University. His extensive track record includes solo and group exhibitions throughout California since the mid-1980's.

His work has appeared at numerous galleries and shows, and has been showcased at a number of large corporate and government institutions, including Apple Computer, Hewlett-Packard, Syntex, Saks Fifth Avenue, Price Waterhouse, the City of San Jose, the City of Sacramento, and Merrill Lynch. He has been profiled in numerous publications including the San Jose Mercury News, the Los Angeles Times, and the San Diego Tribune, Artweek, and Art and Antique Collector

